9.15 am New Government, New Economic Outlook?

Businesses and individuals alike are buoyantly positive about the new Government's inaugural 2019 Budget with the theme of "Restoring Public Finances, Sustaining Growth and Enhancing Wellbeing". Will the Government be able to balance between fulfilling its manifesto while managing the country's debt exposure, thereby enhancing confidence in our markets and economy?

Join leading economists as they debate how the 2019 Budget will impact the economy, key sectors and industries, and the ringgit. Importantly, see how recent economic developments and 2019 Budget may affect business restructuring and insolvency

10:30 am Morning Refreshments & Networking

11.00 am Insolvency and Restructuring

The revamp of the Companies Act 2016 has significantly enhanced the rescue mechanism for corporate companies facing insolvency risks in Malaysia. This session shares insightful lessons learnt from case studies of insolvency and restructuring that are highly important especially for directors and entrepreneurs intent on saving, protecting or turning around businesses.

12.15 pm Lunch & Networking

1.45 pm Asset Tracing and Forensic

Asset tracing and forensic methods are key to an effective insolvency process, whereby certain of the companies' assets may need to be traced and dissolved appropriately in compliance with the rules and regulations of the authorities. This session discusses the latest developments and trends in fraud, assets tracing and litigation funding, and shows how the roles of forensic accountants are expanding to accommodate these processes of investigation and pursuing claims if necessary.

3.00 pm Legal Colloquium: Case Study

With the coming into force of the corporate rescue mechanism, there have already been several court applications for judicial management. An application for judicial management will have to balance the interests of the applicant company and that of the creditors. Learn from the perspectives of the judiciary and legal practitioners through a judicial management case study. This will be conducted by way of a mock court hearing before the Honourable Judicial Commissioner Puan Wong Chee Lin.
